

SAILING THE PAST INTO THE FUTURE

COP23 SIDE EVENT

H.E. Tommy E. Remengesau, President of the Republic of Palau
H.E. Hilda Heine, President of the Republic of the Marshall Islands
H.E. Baron Waqa, President of the Republic of Nauru
H.E. Yosiwo P. George, Vice President of Federated States of Micronesia and Overseas Environmental Cooperation Center, Japan invite you to:

BUILDING UPON TRADITIONAL KNOWLEDGE, PACIFIC ISLANDS TAKE THE LEAD IN SUSTAINABLE SEA TRANSPORTATION

BONN ZONE MEETING ROOM 9

14 November 2017, 18:00-18:30 Reception, 18:30-20:00 Event

Co-hosts will be joined by:
Pacific Ocean Commissioner Dame Meg Taylor
OECC Senior Researcher Dr. Emiko Matsuda
CEO Okeanos Foundation for the Sea Dieter Paulmann
Fijian Voyager and Okeanos Skipper Iva Nancy Vunikura
Moderated by:
Director General of SPREP Kosi Latu

Pacific island nations join together with the support of Okeanos Foundation for the Sea to establish a regional sustainable sea transportation network of traditionally designed, modernized sailing canoes.

